

5th Annual Global Poverty and Practice

Photo Contest (2013)

The Global Poverty and Practice (GPP) Minor is holding its 5th annual photo contest. All GPP students who have completed a practice experience are encouraged to submit original photographs from your practice experience.

First place will receive $200, 2nd place $100, 3rd place $50.

Competition Details:

- Submission deadline is October 11th at 5pm . The maximum number of photographs you can submit is three per person.
- All photographs and captions should be submitted as high resolution jpg files (300dpi minimum) to gppphotocontest@gmail.com
- Photographs must be accompanied by a caption (less than 100 words) including your name, photograph location and year taken
- Finalist photographs will be judged by all GPP students, staff, and faculty present at the GPP New Student Welcome event on Wednesday, October 30th from 5:30pm – 7:30pm in the Plaza Level of Blum Hall
- As you select your photo submission and write your caption, recall strategies for critical visual documentation discussed in your GPP 105 course
- Photos will be judged based on the following criteria:
  - Visual Content: How well the photo (without the caption) tells a story of people engaging with poverty and inequality
  - Aesthetics: How well the photo uses visual devices (composition, focus, exposure, etc.) to tell a story or create a visual impact on the viewer
  - Caption: How well the caption contributes something deeper, illuminating, or unexpected about the social, political, and economic context of the image
