

“WATER IS LIFE: SHARED CHALLENGES, SHARED UNDERSTANDING, AND SHARED SOLUTIONS”

INDIGENOUS CO-INNOVATION AT THE NEXUS OF FOOD, ENERGY, & WATER SYSTEMS

Tribal College & University Partnerships in Co-InFEWS
Virtual Workshop Panel Discussions

Friday, September 25, 2020

9:00am - 12:30pm PDT

Register HERE

Tribal College FEWS Capacity Building

9:00-10:30 PDT // 10:00-11:30 MDT // 11:00-12:30 CDT // 12:00-1:30 EDT

Discussion with faculty and administrators from Tribal Colleges & Universities on mechanisms and practices to expand programming and student support in food-energy-water related disciplines.

Welcome: N. Levi Esquerro, Senior Vice President for Native American Advancement, Univ. of Arizona

Introduction: Karletta Chief, Co-PI, University of Arizona

Moderators: Neilroy Singer, Diné College & Nikki Tulley, University of Arizona

Christopher Caldwell, College of Menominee Nation

Benita Litson, Diné College

John Doyle, Little Big Horn College

Steven Chischilly, Navajo Technical University

Teresa Newberry, Tohono O'Odham Community College

Pathways to FEWS Degrees

11:00-12:30 PDT // 12:00-1:30 MDT // 1:00-2:30 CDT // 2:00-3:30 EDT

Discussion on best practices to support student advancement from High School to Associate and Bachelor degrees through to Graduate degrees and careers in food-energy-water related professions.

Introduction: Alice Agogino, PI, University of California-Berkeley

Moderators: Patrick Naranjo, UC-Berkeley & JoRee LaFrance, University of Arizona

Mark Bauer, Diné College

Daniel Wildcat, Haskell Indian Nations University

H. Scott Halliday, Navajo Technical University

Shandin Pete, Salish Kootenai College

Scott Cowell, University of Arizona

WEBSITE: HTTPS://BLUMCENTER.BERKELEY.EDU/ACADEMICS/INFEWS/WORKSHOP

EMAIL: Yael Perez at PYAEL@BERKELEY.EDU OR Cara Duncan at CARADUNCAN@ARIZONA.EDU

NSF #DGE1633740
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY
UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
DINÉ COLLEGE
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA

Art credit: Peter Parnall